

FATBOY - Diggin' The Scene

It's all about alligator shoes in the twilight zone

It's been three years since the release of Moments by FATBOY and now the band is ready to share the work of a new album – Diggin' The Scene. Album no. 6 takes you on a bumpy ride around life itself – broken hearts and burning bridges in a world that we used to know. Ten tracks on the edge of the unspeakably cool and the unbearably romantic. The first single Mercy Mercy is already played frequently on Swedish national radio.

The album was recorded at Park Studios in Stockholm by producer Stefan Boman (kent, The Hellcopters) and is released by the psykbunkern label (founded by Sami Sirviö and Peter Ejheden).

FATBOY are joined by Arboga Tango Queen Heidi Kaarto, Mr. CryingGuitar Esa Pulliainen (Agents), SwampKing Jo' Buddy, DooWop Matte Lagerwall (The Boppers) and Maestro Peter Kvint.

FATBOY are going on tour with the new album, starting in Sweden March 6th and coming to Finland in April.
